

History

PAPER ONE

Kenilworth Castle

- The reasons for the location of the site
- When and why people first created the site.
- Ways in which the site has changed over time.
- Reasons for changes to the site and to the way it was used.
- Significant times in the site's past: peak activity, major developments, and turning points.
- The challenges and benefits of studying the historic environment

PAPER TWO

People's Heath

- Medieval Britain, 1250-1500
- Early Modern Britain, 1500-1750
- Industrial Britain, 1750-1900
- Britain since 1900

The Norman Conquest

- Anglo-Saxon England
- Invasion and victory
- Resistance and response
- Early Castles
- Conquest and control
-

PAPER THREE

Living Under Nazi Rule

- Democracy to dictatorship
- Control and opposition
- Changing lives
- Wartime Germany
- Wartime occupation

Your final GCSE Exam will also include:

The Making of America

Revision Strategies

ALWAYS TRANSFORM AND DON'T TRANSFER TO CREATE REVISION RESOURCES

Use combinations of methods for small amounts of time like

- Pupil Resources
- Key point cards
- Podcasts
- Practise questions
- Knowledge organisers