

Where do our students go on to after The Chantry School?

The vast majority go to a post -16 education either at a school or college. Others pursue training opportunities, for example apprenticeships. Students are well served by the many post – 16 providers in the area, ranging from Hereford up to Stourbridge and into Worcester and Malvern, and of course all points in between.

