Dear Parents/Carer

I am proposing to run a trip for Y10 pupils to London on Thursday, 11th of July 2019 to visit the Tate Modern Art Gallery. The purpose behind the visit is to provide the pupils with the opportunity to study artwork at first hand from which they will develop a piece of GCSE coursework. Pupils will need to bring a sketchbook and dry drawing materials (colour pencils and graphite ONLY) and a camera (if possible) with them.

The itinerary, times and costs of the day are as follows:

- Depart The Chantry School 7.30am
- Arrive Tate Modern at around 11.30am.
- A packed lunch will be necessary.
- Depart Tate Modern at 4.00pm
- Arrive The Chantry School around 8.00pm (Pupils will be asked to phone on the way home to confirm this. A school mobile can be used if necessary)
- Cost will be £28.00 each
- Staff responsible will be Miss S Williams, Mrs N Hepburn.
- Pupils can wear their own clothes, but must be smartly dressed as they will be representing the school throughout the day.

I hope that you will be happy to let your son/daughter go on the trip as this will be such a vital part of their GCSE course.

I would be grateful if you would sign the parental consent form below and return it to Mrs Kinsey in the school office and make your payment by School Gateway by Friday 14th of June. If your son/daughter does not attend after payment, we will be unable to issue a refund.

Thank you for your support of this activity.

Yours sincerely

Miss S Williams
